General Elections
2023

Exit Poll Results

Abstract:

- The dynamics portrayed in the poll underscore a changing political landscape, with Congress emerging as a significant beneficiary of this shift in public opinion. The competition between Congress and BJP is evidently intensifying, while BRS grapples with challenges in retaining its voter base and maintaining its seat count.
- The exit poll survey suggests that Congress is gaining momentum and stands poised to secure a majority to form the government with 66-75 seats
- One notable trend revealed by the poll is the substantial loss of vote share by BRS to both Congress and BJP. This shift in voter allegiance appears to be affecting BRS across the state, leading to a decline in its overall seat count.

Party	Vote share
BRS	38.8%
Congress	41.6%
BJP	13.5%
AIMIM	2.8%
Others	3.3%

Executive Summary:

- Under the leadership of Revanth Reddy, the Congress party has witnessed a significant resurgence, particularly evident when compared to its performance in the 2018 election. The party has effectively strengthened its argument against the government by highlighting issues such as corruption and anti-vote bank policies.
- The Congress has strategically emphasised alleged government manipulations in job appointments, which has worked to its advantage. Additionally, the party has benefitted from a decline in the BJP's momentum following the Karnataka election, where a change in presidency weakened the opposition and bolstered the Congress.
- An important factor contributing to the Congress's rise is the anticipated support from the TDP vote bank. Both TDP votes and those from settler communities appear to be shifting towards the Congress in the current political landscape.

- The Congress is notably strong in all Andhra border districts, comprising seven districts and 26 assemblies. The party's performance in these areas is surpassing its previous records.
- In regions such as Telangana Andhra Borders, Khammam, Suryapet, Nalgonda Nagarkurnool, Bhadradri, Kothagudem, Congress appears to have secured a majority, further reinforcing its electoral prospects in these areas.
- While the survey results suggest BRS strength in 38 to 46 seats out of 119, the Congress is projected to be strong in 66 to 75 seats. The BJP is limited to a range of 5 to 9 seats, while AIMIM is projected to secure 5 to 6 seats.

S.No.	Party	No. of seats
1	BRS	38-46
2	INC	66-75
3	BJP	5-9
4	AIMIM	5-6
5	Others	1-3

The findings from the exit polls strongly suggest that the Congress Party is on track to achieve a decisive victory, securing a substantial majority that would enable it to form the government comfortably. The data collected from voters as they exit polling stations indicates a favorable trend for the Congress Party, pointing towards widespread support across various constituencies. This anticipated comfortable majority underscores the party's potential to take the reins of governance with confidence, pending the official election results.
